

Updated
Photo and Art Program

Sociology in Our Times

11th Edition

9781337401500

©2017

Diane Kendall

9781337287944

Features include:

- Insights on what is going on in our national and world from a sociological perspective. All data has been updated. Students apply the content to relevant sociological issues concerns of the 21st century.
- Exploration of how the media (particularly social media) brings about new ways of living and interacting.
- Chapters now open with a "Sociology and Everyday Life" box that includes the experiences of real people and a quiz asking students what they know about the topics.
- Unparalleled coverage of and attention to diversity
- Features in the text include: "Sociology and Social Policy"; "Sociology in Global Perspective"; "Media" boxes including more discussion of social media and social change; "Sociology Works!"
- Media quizzing for every chapter on MindTap learning path.
- Timely topics include suicide, bullying, and social media; the food truck movement; societies, technology, and social change; gun control; Internet crime; the future of education; secularization; SuperPacs; immigration; and environmental activism

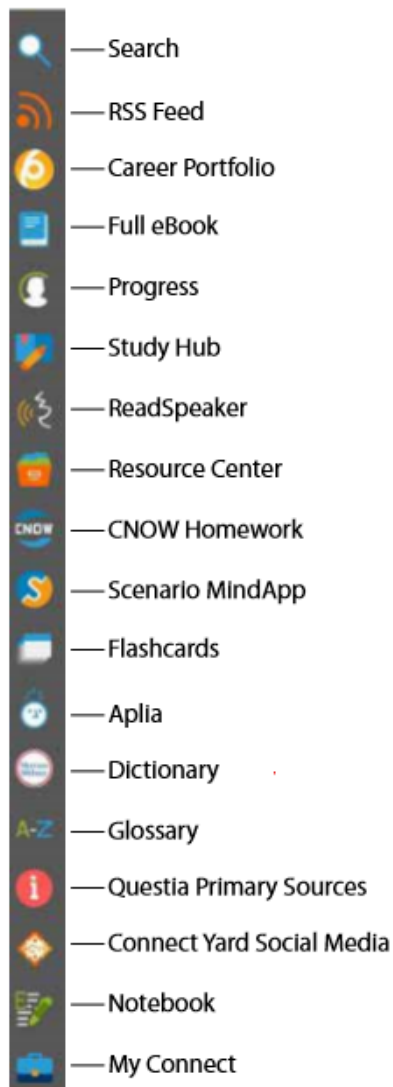

Digital learning tools available with Sociology in our Times:

MindTap for social studies brings course concepts to life with interactive learning, study, and exam preparation tools. This online learning tool includes an integrated eBook, interactive teaching and learning tools—including quizzes, flashcards, and videos—and Engagement Tracker, a unique tool that monitors student preparation and engagement in the course.

Discover the MindTap Student App Dock with these great learning features:

For questions, or to schedule a presentation, please contact your Sales Consultant by visiting NGL.Cengage.com/RepFinder.

NGL.Cengage.com
888-915-3276